Community History Play

Owsley County history there is a group of individuals who are starting a community theater group. This is an exciting project based on the "Swamp Gravy" community theater model out of Colquitt, Georgia. Earlier this year, two members of our community and a theater artist attended the training offered in Colquitt to learn how to create plays based on community history. They were Jennifer Bryant. Linda Baker Bowling, and Robert Martin. While there

Swamp Gravy play as well as be trained on how to work with the community to create their own community history play.

Over the next few months many people in our community will work together to create this first ever Owsley County community history play. We will need help from lots of different people to make this production a reality. Currently members of the Owsley County Action Team are busy collecting

National Library Week At

Owsley County Public Library

April 15-19, 2013

Do you have that library book or movie you found at the bottom of a closet or in your collection of movies from last year but have dreaded returning it because it is now almost a year overdue? Your in luck. The Owsley County Public Library will be celebrating National Library Week with a fine-free week April 15-19, 2013. During this week, overdue books and movies will be accepted with no questions asked and no fine charged. We just want our books and movies back. The fine is usually 5 cents per day on books and $1.50 per day per movie. We usually lose about 100 to 150 books and movies a year.

This cost is a strain on our library's limited budget. The loss rate isn't as high but still, every book and movie is precious. Hope to see some books and movies returned.

* All NEW borrowers during this week, will be elligible to win a 11X14 painting by local artist, Wendell J. Smith. We will draw for this on Friday, April 19, at 4:00PM * Monday, April 15, from 5:30PM-7:00PM Jerry Deaton, Kentucky author and filmmaker. Will read from his book,

Appalachian Ghost Stories: Tales From Bloody Breathitt and will show his new film, The Feuds of Bloody Breathitt: KY's Untold Story. * Tuesday, April 16, from 3:30PM-5:00PM Lowell G. Morris and Rusty Hall, from Booneville will be telling Jack Tales and playing music.

Wednesday, April 17, from 3:30PM-5:00PM Kentucky

Division of Forestry, Forest Ranger, Jane Quillen

Dubois will be distributing Redbud and Hazel nut trees and talking a little bit about the importance of trees. *

Thursday, April 18, from 3:30PM-5:00PM OCPL will have registration for our Summer Reading program, Dig

Into Reading and will be serving hot dogs, Joslyn Cope will be speaking about a Beginners Computer Class for adults, that she is hoping to get started in May. The class will consist of 6-8 people, if you're interested you may want to register now. * Friday, April 19, at 4:00PM

we will draw the lucky winner of the 11X14 painting by Wendell J. Smith. Hope everyone can come out and enjoy National Library Week!!!

rent years' version of the residents. These histories will then be turned into a play about us and our past. We will be working with students from Owsley County High School during the after school program through a partnership with the Berea College Promise Neighborhood Initiative. Students will learn about dance, playwriting, set design, acting and all things theater.

In addition, we will need help from adults of all ages to be performers, producers and help in other ways the help of the Brushy Fork Institute of Berea College, grant funds have been obtained to hire, Robert from Jackson County to work as the director of the first production. With his experience and guidance we are sure to have a wonderful production for our community. The performances will coincide with the Daniel Boone Days celebration this summer

We need lots of help from our community to make this play a reality. If you

For the first time in they got to see the cur- the histories from our local with the production. With are over 70 years old and would like your stories to be included in the play, if you are a high school student and would like to be Martin, a theater artist involved in the production by learning about dance, acting, and theater production, or if you are an adult in the community, of any age, who would like to be involved with production, you can call Jennifer Bryant at the Owsley County Action Team at (606) 593-7296 ext 6 We would be thankful for any help that can be provided in getting this endeavor off

On Saturday, April 13th, Roger D. Partin was driving home from Breathitt County on 30E heading to Bell County in his 1999 Chevrolett 1500 Pick-up Truck when a strange thing occured. Partin sneezed and when he finished he found that he had left the roadway and smashed his truck straight into an electric pole snapping it in too. Partin did not receive any life threatening injuries from the wreck.

Deputy Ivan Fletcher Graduates From Class 442 Basic Training

Ivan Fletcher, a deputy for the Owsley County Sheriff's Department, recently graduated from Class 442 from Basic Training with the Kentucky Department of Criminal Justice Training at Eastern Kentucky University. This course is an intensive 18 week course consisting of nearly 770 hours of recruitlevel officer academy instruction in areas which include homeland security, law offense and procedures, operations,

4-H Natural Resource Science Academy

Three students from Owsley County recently visited Begley Lumber in Leslie County as part of the curriculum for the 4H Science Academy. They were taught how to measure a log, deter mine how many board foot of lumber it would produce and what the actual value of that log was to the owner. They visited the log yard where they watched as workers unloaded, graded and purchased the logs. They followed the logs as they went through the milling process and out the other end where they were loaded on a truck and shipped to a buyer of the lumber. They learned the value of the forest from standing timber until it reached the consumer. Kendal Campbell, Emalee Patton and Austin Sizemore were selected to participate in this program by their science teachers and the Owsley County 4-H Council two years ago. They have participated in the Water and Forestry components since then and for their third and final year they will be participating in a Wildlife Curriculum.

Eastside Apartment News

By Dorothy Osborne

"Oh what a beautiful weekend we have sun shining. Dovie Roberts walked over and sat on the porch with Naomi McIntosh and me. Dovie is a wonderful lady. I have known her since I vas a child. I also seen Dale Roberts out doing his walking. He makes six laps around the apartments. That equals one mile.

Naomi McIntosh had family visiting her this weekend. Which included her daughter, grandson, and her grandson's wife and child. Naomi's great grandchild has beautiful red hair. which lays in big curls down her back.

Please remember Della Angel in your prayers. She has been having some really bad head pains but keeps going. My son Billy Joe is visiting me today. He is so good to me. He helps me a lot.

Joey visited her for a few days. Naomi McIntosh is Joeys other grandmother. So he also visited Naomi. I love Joey's beautiful smile and laugh.

Last nights we went to the Sportsman's Club. There was a guy named Sam Wilson was there. (Not Booneville's Sam Wilson) This Sam used to travel and sing with Bill Monroe, Larry Sparks and a few other "big names". He told us stories of when he was on the road with them. He had us all laughing. The Sportsman's Club is a good place to go to listen to music and have good, clean fun. There is no drinking or smoking. The air is fresh and the food is good. I really enjoy myself when I go.

Naomi's great granddaughter I mentioned was scared to you all.

of my little dog Sissy. Sissy was lying on the porch. Naomi's Great granddaughter looked at me and said "lady will you please put your baby back in the house, she might bite me.'

And so I did. Also, please keep me in your prayers. The 26th will be here soon. That means another trip to Georgetown. I have two doctor visits this week. My total weight loss as of right now is 72 pounds. If they don't hurry up I wont need a surgery. That would be wonderful. Right now it is raining out side. But that comes with the beautiful, warm spring weather. We are surely blessed with Gods beauty. A little rabbit ate one of my flowers. So much with that. I hope he enjoyed it. Until next week. God bless

Fair Housing Month

entucky River Community Care reminds everyone that April is Fair Housing Month, National Fair lousing – title VIII of the 1968 Civil Rights Act - prohibits discrimination in housing on the basis of race olor, religion, disability, familial status, sex, or national origin. Fair Housing Laws apply to real estate ents, landlords, builders, developers, and lenders.

Fair Housing became law as a result of the political climate of 1968. Prior to his assassination Martin Luther King was organizing Open Housing marches in Chicago. Outrage over his death ovided the energy to pass progressive housing and anti discrimination policy. As the war in Vietna aimed the lives of men of color, their families in the United States could not afford housing and wer ctively discriminated against. The NAACP, the GI Forum, and the National Committee against crimination in Housing lobbied hard to pass the bill to ensure housing for Vietnam War veterans, eir widowed families, and people of color. To learn more about the history of Fair Housing, check ou using and Urban Development website at
